-----X
CISERO MURPHY JR., :
2020 MAY 27 AM 9:24
Plaintiff, :
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
Against : COMPLAINT
TYRIEK A. MURPHY, : [JURY TRIAL DEMANDED]
Defendant. :
-----X

Plaintiff Cisero Murphy Jr. ("Plaintiff") as and for his Complaint against defendant Tyriek A. Murphy ("Defendant"), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE CASE

1. Plaintiff Cisero Murphy Jr. ("Cisero" or "Plaintiff") brings this action to recover from theft and fraud perpetrated against him by his own son, Tyriek Murphy ("Tyriek" or "Defendant"). Plaintiff is the son and namesake of Cisero Murphy Sr. ("Cisero Sr."), a professional pool player, and the first African-American to win world and U.S. national billiards championships. From 2008 to 2016, Plaintiff devoted himself to researching and writing a biography about his late father ("Big City Knights"). Before Cisero was able to publish or sell his father's biography, his own son, Tyriek, stole it—literally by taking the manuscript out of Cisero's car—and then publishing and selling the work as his own creation. Tyriek carried out a campaign of fraud, deceit, and misappropriation designed to steal Cisero's copyrighted material. In the course of doing so, Tyriek has infringed on Cisero's copyrights and committed various torts.

2. Plaintiff now seeks three items of relief in this action: (a) a declaration that he is the sole owner and author of the Printed Copyrighted Work, Big City Knights: The Biography of: Cisero "Sonny" Murphy A World-Class Champion, and of the Electronic Copyrighted Work, Big

City Nights; (b) injunctive and monetary relief for Defendant's willful infringement of Plaintiff's copyrights in the Copyrighted Works; (c) a declaration that the Forged Agreement attached as Exhibit A is null and void, and (d) an award of damages in an amount equal to Plaintiff's monetary contribution to the formation of Murphy Enterprise Solutions LLC.

3. A week after stealing the Big City Nights manuscript, Tyriek met with Cisero under false pretenses, convincing Cisero to sign an agreement which purportedly gave Tyriek the right to use Cisero's name and likeness in a different book that he (Tyriek) was allegedly planning to write about Cisero.

4. Later that same day, Tyriek, without Cisero's knowledge or permission, removed the signature page from that pretextual agreement and appended it to another agreement he had secretly drafted (the "Forged Agreement"). This forged agreement purported to transfer Cisero's rights in Big City Knights to an LLC that Tyriek had formed, Murphy Enterprise Solutions LLC ("MES"), and without any consideration for the transfer. The Forged Agreement is attached as Exhibit A.

5. Although Cisero and Tyriek had discussed forming an LLC to honor and promote Cisero Sr.'s legacy, and although Cisero had paid Tyriek $1,118.00 dollars to form such an LLC, Tyriek left Cisero's name off the formation documents of MES, and holds himself out as the sole owner of MES.

6. That same day, Tyriek caused the Forged Agreement to be notarized. Cisero did not accompany Tyriek to the notary, nor did he agree that the Forged Agreement should be notarized—indeed, at this point, Cisero was still unaware of its existence. Tyriek then sent Cisero a letter purporting to remove Cisero from the LLC and published Big City Knights as his own, under the title Big City Nights: The Biography of the Legendary Cisero Murphy.

7. Tyriek has refused to give Cisero credit for authoring the book and has refused to remit profits from sales of the book to Cisero. Through theft and fraud, Tyriek has capitalized on the hard work of his father, a man from whom he spent most of his life estranged, and on the success and fame of his grandfather, a man Tyriek met only once when he was a small child.

8. Cisero had no knowledge of the creation of the Forged Agreement, never signed it, was not present when it was allegedly notarized, and had no intention of ever transferring his ownership in his book to Tyriek or to MES.

9. Attached as Exhibit B is Cisero's Copyright Registration No. TXu002053010 for the printed work, Big City Nights: The Biography of: Cisero "Sonny" Murphy A World-Class Champion (the "Printed Copyrighted Work").

10. Attached as Exhibit C is Cisero's Copyright Registration No. TXu002060114 for the electronic work, Big City Nights (the "Electronic Copyrighted Work").

11. Together, Exhibits B and C are the "Copyrighted Works."

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. This court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, and 1338(a) and pursuant to the principles of supplemental jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

13. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1400(a) because Defendant resides in this district.

14. Venue is also proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1) because Defendant resides in this district, and under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in this district.

PARTIES

15. Plaintiff Cisero Murphy, Jr., resides in Queens County, New York and is a citizen of New York.

16. Defendant Tyriek Anthony Murphy resides in Kings County, New York and is a citizen of New York.

FACTS

A. Cisero “Sonny” Murphy Sr.’s Brilliant Billiards Career.

12. Cisero “Sonny” Murphy Sr., Plaintiff’s father, was a legendary professional pool player who made history in 1965 by becoming the first African-American to win a world billiards championship. Plaintiff Cisero Murphy Jr. is Cisero Sr.’s eldest child.

B. Cisero Begins Writing His Father’s Biography.

13. In 2008, Cisero began the process of researching and writing his father’s biography, and in the summer of 2015, began to write, by hand, the manuscript that would become Big City Knights: The Biography of: Cisero “Sonny” Murphy A World-Class Champion.

On June 15, 2017, the United States Copyright Office issued Cisero Copyright Registration No. TXu002053010 for the Printed Copyrighted Work, Big City Knights: The Biography of: Cisero “Sonny” Murphy A World-Class Champion.

On July 3, 2017, the United States Copyright Office issued Cisero Copyright Registration No. TXu002060114 for the Electronic Copyrighted Work, Big City Nights.

C. Tyriek Seeks to Become Involved with Cisero’s Book.

14. In or around summer of 2015, Cisero told Tyriek he was writing a book about his father, Cisero Sr.

15. In late 2015 or early 2016, Tyriek asked if he could mechanically type and proofread the book for Cisero. Cisero accepted Tyriek's offer of secretarial services, seeing this as an opportunity to reconnect with his son.

16. By the time Tyriek showed interest in the book about Cisero Sr., Cisero had already completed seven of the nine chapters that became the Copyrighted Works.

17. Tyriek only worked with the manuscript while Cisero was in the same room as him, as Cisero did not want anyone else seeing his work before it was completed.

D. Cisero Tells Tyriek of His Vision For A Company To Honor Cisero Sr.

18. In the 1970s, Cisero Sr. started a program called Billiards in the Streets, which involved Cisero Sr. packing a pool table into a van and driving it through all five boroughs of New York City teaching children the game of pool and providing free exhibitions at senior centers and veterans hospitals. The New York City Parks Department sponsored the program until Cisero Sr. died in 1996.

19. In the summer of 2016, Cisero told Tyriek that he had dreamed of starting an organization to continue his father's work.

20. At around that time in the summer of 2016, Tyriek suggested that Cisero and Tyriek form a limited liability company together.

E. Cisero and Tyriek Discuss Forming MES As Equal Owners.

21. In or around June 2016, Cisero and Tyriek discussed forming MES as an LLC. Tyriek led Cisero to believe that each would be equal co-owners of MES. Pursuant to this understanding, each of them was to pay half of the costs of starting MES.

22. On or around June 20, 2016, upon Tyriek's request, Cisero paid Tyriek $105, which Cisero understood to be Cisero half of the cost to file MES's Articles of Organization with the New York Department of State.

23. On or around June 30, 2016, upon Tyriek's request, Cisero paid Tyriek $398, which Cisero understood to be Cisero half of the cost required to trademark the MES logo.

24. On or around August 31, 2016, upon Tyriek's request, Cisero paid Tyriek $200, which Cisero understood was to be spent to print MES-branded flyers.

25. On or around September 16, 2016, upon Tyriek's request, Cisero paid Tyriek $420, which Cisero understood to be Cisero half of the additional funds needed to form MES.

26. In or around fall of 2016, upon Tyriek's request, Cisero also paid Tyriek $100, which Tyriek said would be spent on business cards and stationary for MES.

27. In total, Cisero gave Tyriek $1,118 to start the LLC. To the best of Cisero's knowledge, Cisero and Tyriek paid a total of $1,936 to start the LLC. Cisero paid approximately 57% of the startup costs.

28. Text messages between Cisero and Tyriek from June 2016 through October 2016 demonstrate that Tyriek led Cisero to believe that Cisero would be a co-owner of the LLC. These text messages are attached as Exhibit D.

29. On December 19, 2016, Tyriek drafted and then filed LLC formation documents with the New York Department of State. Despite the fact that Tyriek told Cisero they would each be co-owners of the business Tyriek did not include Cisero's name on the formation documents. Cisero Tyriek represented to Cisero that Tyriek's, lawyer had advised Tyriek that the formation documents could be later amended to list Cisero as a co-owner and that Cisero would, nevertheless, be a co-owner of the LLC.

30. Tyriek led Cisero to believe, and Cisero did believe that they would be equal co-owners of the LLC.

F. Tyriek Steals Cisero's Manuscript.

31. In the second half of 2016, Tyriek intensified his scheme to defraud Cisero.

32. Beginning around August 2016, Tyriek escalated his already strange behavior:

33. Tyriek pressured Cisero to finish the book quickly.

34. He had his young child, Cisero's then-six-year-old grandson, attempt to steal the password to Cisero's computer.

35. He asked for Cisero's driver's license.

36. He asked for Cisero's full legal name as it appeared on his driver's license.

37. He asked for Cisero Sr.'s social security number.

38. He asked for a copy of Cisero Sr.'s birth certificate.

39. On information and believe, Tyriek hoped that each of these actions would further his scheme to defraud Cisero.

40. On January 16, 2017, Cisero printed three copies of the typed manuscript at a FedEx store.

41. The next day, on January 17, Cisero drove to Tyriek's house for a social visit.

42. When he arrived, Cisero got out of the car to speak to a neighbor.

43. During this conversation, Tyriek came out of his house, went into Cisero's car, and stole a copy of the manuscript.

G. Tyriek Improperly Removes A Signature Page From Another Agreement and Attaches It To A Secret Document That Purports To Transfer All of Cisero's Rights In Big City Knights To Murphy Enterprise Solutions LLC.

44. A week after stealing Cisero's physical property, Tyriek attempted to trick Cisero into assigning Tyriek his intellectual property.

45. On January 25, 2017, Cisero and Tyriek met outside Tyriek's house. As they sat in Cisero's car, Cisero asked Tyriek to sign a release form that would give Cisero permission to use Tyriek's name and likeness in Big City Knights.

46. Cisero removed a generic release form from his briefcase, which Tyriek signed (the "Release Form for Cisero's Book"). The Release Form for Cisero's Book is attached as Exhibit E.

47. Tyriek then asked that Cisero Jr. sign a reciprocal release form giving Tyriek permission to use Cisero's name and likeness in a book that Tyriek was planning to author about Cisero. Tyriek produced another release form from a large envelope he had brought with him to the car (the "Release Form for Tyriek's Book"). The Release Form for Tyriek's Book is attached as Exhibit F.

48. Cisero signed the Release Form for Tyriek's Book on the "Associate Signature" link i.e. the line where the person giving the release is supposed to sign, and Tyriek signed on the "MES Signature" line. The "Witness Signature" line was left blank.

49. Suspicious that Tyriek was not actually writing his own book, Cisero told Tyriek that the Release Form for Tyriek's Book was not to be used for anything other than allowing Tyriek to use Cisero's name and likeness in a new book that Tyriek was apparently authoring.

50. Cisero asked Tyriek to go into his house, which was across the street from the car, to make a copy of the release forms on his copier machine.

51. Tyriek claimed that his copier machine was broken and suggested that Cisero simply sign another copy of the Release Form for Tyriek's Book so that they would each have an original.

52. Tyriek produced another release form from his envelope, which Cisero signed.

53. Notably, on this second form, the lines for "Witness Name" and "Witness Signature" were left blank.

54. Following this exchange, Cisero and Tyriek each kept an original signed version of the Release Form for Tyriek's Book.

55. On information and belief, later that day, Tyriek removed the signature page from his copy of the signed Release Form for Tyriek's Book. He then attached that signature page to an agreement that he had secretly drawn up, which purported to transfer Cisero's rights in Big City Knights to MES (the "Forged Agreement").

56. Tyriek drafted the Forged Agreement without Cisero's knowledge or permission.

57. The Forged Agreement bears a notary seal dated that same day, January 25, 2017.

58. Cisero was not present when the Forged Agreement was purportedly notarized.

59. A review of the signature page attached to the Forged Agreement (Exhibit A) reveals that it is virtually identical to the signature page in the Release Form for Tyriek's Book (Exhibit F), thus showing that Cisero never signed the Forged Agreement, but rather that Tyriek removed Cisero's signature from his version of the Release Form for Tyriek's Book and attached it to the Forged Agreement.

60. Any signature purporting to belong to Cisero Jr. on the Forged Agreement is a forgery.

H. Tyriek Cisero Attempts To Remove Him From Murphy Enterprise Solutions LLC.

61. Now that Tyriek had stolen a physical copy of Big City Knights, forged an agreement that purported to transfer Cisero's rights in Big City Knights to Murphy Enterprise Solutions LLC, and failed to include Cisero's name on the formation documents for the LLC, all that remained was to notify Cisero that he was not in the LLC.

62. On May 11, 2017, Tyriek sent Cisero a letter notifying Cisero that his "access" to Murphy Enterprise Solutions LLC had been "terminat[ed]" (the "Termination Letter"). The Termination Letter is attached as Exhibit G.

63. The Termination Letter states:

This letter is your written documentation, although not needed based upon the terms of the forfeiture contract signed by you on January 25th, 2017, to confirm the verbal notification given on May 8th, 2017 regarding the termination of your MES Restricted Access.

The decision to end your restricted access was based solely upon your malicious and devious actions, by way of committing possible fraud, dishonesty, and withholding vital information, that are absolutely unacceptable to MES and the MES Mission, Vision, and Company Overview.

Additionally, it should be essentially noted, MES will seek judicial intervention if you, at any time, disregard or breach any of the terms of contracts you signed with MES.

Best of luck in your future endeavors!!

Exhibit G at third paragraph.

64. The Termination Letter's statement regarding "the forfeiture contract signed by you on January 25th, 2017" is a reference to the Forged Agreement, which has no force or effect.

I. Tyriek Claims To Be The Sole Author Of Big City Knights, Publishes The Book As His Own Original Work, and Commences Sales.

65. In June 2017, Tyriek stopped referring to Big City Knights as "your book" and began to publicly pass himself off as the author of the Copyrighted Works.

66. In June 2017, Tyriek posted an advertisement for sale of a book, titled Big City Nights: The Biography of the Legendary Cisero Murphy (the "Infringing Work"), on his Instagram account, announcing that pre-orders would begin on July 1, 2017. The advertisement did not list Cisero as the author.

67. On information and belief, in or around July 1, 2017, Tyriek published and sold copies of the Infringing Work, which is virtually identical to the Copyrighted Works.

68. On information and belief, sales have continued into 2020.

69. In creating the Infringing Work, Tyriek made only superficial changes to the Copyrighted Works, such as changing the title author's name, altering where chapters begin and end, deleting certain passages contained in the Copyrighted Works, and adding a disparaging paragraph regarding Cisero's criminal history and aptitude as a father. The Infringing Work is currently offered for sale on the defendant's website, as well as websites such as Booktopia, Barnes and Noble, eBay, and Amazon.

70. Tyriek copied the Copyrighted Works to create the Infringing Work. He did so either when he stole the printed manuscript from Cisero or when he had access to the electronic manuscript during the time he was assisting Cisero by typing and editing it. The Infringing work is not an original work of authorship actually created by Tyriek.

J. Cisero Sends Tyriek Several Cease And Desist Letters.

71. After learning of Tyriek's potential infringement, Cisero, through his attorneys, sent several cease and desist letters to Tyriek.

72. Between 2017 and 2018, Tyriek responded to several of these cease and desist letters.

73. Initially, Tyriek suggested that the Infringing Work was actually a different book from the Copyrighted Works, one that was written by Tyriek alone.

74. By the conclusion of the parties' correspondence in or around 2018, it had become clear to Cisero that Tyriek was actually passing off Cisero's book as his own, under a different title.

75. On June 20, 2017, Cisero's attorney, Alexander Dudelson, sent Tyriek a cease and desist letter ("First Cease and Desist Letter"), which is attached as Exhibit H.

76. The First Cease and Desist Letter stated that it had come to Cisero's attention that Tyriek was planning to sell the Infringing Work beginning on July 1, 2017. The letter further stated that the Copyrighted Works are the proprietary work of Cisero and that Tyriek was not authorized to reproduce or profit from that work without Cisero's consent.

77. On June 26, 2017, Tyriek responded in writing (“Tyriek’s First Response”). Tyriek’s First Response is attached as Exhibit I. In Tyriek’s First Response, Tyriek stated that he had unilaterally removed Cisero from MES because:

[Cisero’s] actions are not suitable under the Murphy Enterprise Solutions (MES) ideology of operational flow. MES has established a brand in which image and integrity are essential. [Cisero] adheres to your verbal direction, so naturally, I will present MES['] stance to you in order to ensure [Cisero] comprehends. [Cisero] is restricted from conducting any business under MES['] image, which means, his restricted access is terminated.

Exhibit I at 1.

78. In Tyriek’s First Response, Tyriek admitted that he was planning to sell the Infringing Work on MES’s website: “To confirm, yes, pre-orders of my book will commence on July 1st, 2017, as scheduled on MES['] website.” In Tyriek’s First Response, Tyriek claimed that he was the author of a different work with a similar title, Big City Nights:

The actual title of my work is Big City Nights: The Autobiography of the Legendary Cisero Murphy. My work is currently on file with the U.S. Copyright Office, Case #1-4356919061. Moreover, I have supporting documentation to show history of my journey putting this project together and with Murphy’s awareness as a spectator.

Exhibit I at 1 (emphasis in original).

79. On July 5, 2017, Cisero, through his attorney, sent Tyriek another cease and desist letter (“Second Cease and Desist Letter”), which is attached as Exhibit J.

80. In the Second Cease and Desist Letter, Cisero’s attorney requested that Tyriek send the documentation that Tyriek referenced in his Tyriek’s First Response as support for his claim that he authored the Infringing Work.

81. In the Second Cease and Desist Letter, Cisero's attorney stated "[i]n my possession, I have a handwritten manuscript of a book about Cisero Murphy, Sr. entitled 'Big City Nights.' This manuscript has editing marks in different handwriting; I also have text messages between you and my client detailing your role in the book as proofreader or editor."

82. On July 7, 2017, Tyriek responded to the July 5 Letter ("Tyriek's Second Response"). Tyriek's Second Response is attached as Exhibit K.

83. In Tyriek's Second Response, Tyriek admitted that Cisero wrote the manuscript, but claimed that he (Tyriek) had dictated the entire manuscript to Cisero.

84. Tyriek claimed that "[a]t the end of each dictation, I reviewed and revised, or edited, my work."

85. Tyriek also claimed to have sent "sufficient documentation . . . to [Cisero's former attorney], which should have been forwarded to you[.]"

86. Despite subsequent requests, no such documentation has ever been provided to Cisero or his lawyers.

87. In Tyriek's Second Response, Tyriek also attached a copy of the Forged Agreement. The Forged Agreement states, in part:

Effectively upon signature of this document, regardless whether in the presence of a public notary official or not, both parties concur to the above and ensuing depictions:

A. Upon the signature of this document by MES and the Associate [Cisero], MES has absolute direct and/or indirect operational foresight of the royalties and/or rights regarding Cisero Sr. from the Associate.

B. Any economical proceeds earned, whether present and/or future, by way of book sells [sic], documentaries, films and/or memorabilia regarding Cisero Sr. will be acquired and/or retained by MES, distributed and/or utilized in accordance to MES exclusive discretion with no obligation of compensating the Associate.

C. The Associate will have uncompensated restricted access within MES. This restricted access provides the Associate with the sole responsibility of ensuring Cisero Sr. legacy is portrayed with complete accuracy and no insinuations and/or fallacies are conveyed.

D. Lastly, any and/or all intellect [sic] property regarding Cisero Sr. under the Associate's authority will immediately be surrender [sic] to MES. MES and/or the Associate, at any time [sic], whether verbally and/or in written documentation may discontinue the restricted access within MES.

Exhibit A at 1 (emphasis in original).

88. On September 12, 2017, Cisero, through his attorneys, sent Tyriek a third cease and desist letter ("Third Cease and Desist Letter"), which is attached as Exhibit L.

89. Tyriek never responded to the Third Cease and Desist Letter.

90. On July 3, 2018, Cisero, through his attorneys, sent Tyriek a final cease and desist letter ("Fourth Cease and Desist Letter"), which is attached as Exhibit M.

91. Tyriek responded on July 16, 2018 (Tyriek's Third Response"), which is attached as Exhibit N.

92. Tyriek has not complied with the cease and desist requests.

K. Tyriek Continues To Injure Cisero and Violate Cisero's Copyrights.

93. As discussed above, Cisero is the sole author of the Copyrighted Works. As a result, Cisero is the exclusive owner of any and all copyrights in the Copyrighted Works. Cisero has a valid and subsisting copyright registrations for the Copyrighted Works. The Copyright Registrations for the Printed Copyrighted Work and the Electronic Copyrighted Work state that Cisero is the sole author of the works and that he is the holder of the rights and permissions of the works.

94. Tyriek copied the Copyrighted Works without Cisero's authorization, consent, or knowledge, and without any remuneration to Cisero.

95. After Tyriek copied the Copyrighted Works to create the Infringing Work, he offered the Infringing Work for sale on numerous online platforms and used the book to promote MES's other commercial activities, including a fashion line.

96. Tyriek has made sales of the Infringing Work.

97. Cisero, through counsel, has sent four cease and desist letters to Tyriek, dated June 20, 2017, July 5, 2017, September 12, 2017, and July 3, 2018. Despite these efforts, Tyriek continues to sell the Infringing Work and use the Infringing Work to promote MES's other business ventures.

98. As a result of Tyriek's actions, Cisero has been directly damaged, and continues to be damaged, by the unauthorized reproduction, distribution, public display, and sale of the Infringing Work.

99. Tyriek has never accounted to or otherwise paid Cisero for Tyriek's use of the Copyrighted Works.

100. Despite repeated requests, Tyriek has provided no evidence that he has complied with the demands set out in the cease and desist letters, and Cisero is unaware of any such evidence.

101. To date, the Infringing Work is still available for sale on MES's website, Amazon.com, Barnes and Nobel, eBay, Apple, and Booktopia. Tyriek most recently promoted the Infringing Work on his Instagram account on February 25, 2019, and has continuously promoted the Infringing work through his website.

102. Tyriek's acts are causing and, unless restrained, will continue to cause, monetary damages, as well as immediate irreparable harm to Cisero for which Cisero has no adequate remedy at law.

L. Tyriek Makes False and Defamatory Statements To Cisero's Friends and Family.

108. Defendant has knowingly and willingly made false statements alleging that Plaintiff engaged in illegal activity, such as fraud, in relation to the copyrighted works and MES.

109. Defendant has knowingly and willingly made false statements alleging that Plaintiff was lying with regard to his authorship of the copyrighted works.

110. Defendant made these false statements to third parties, including to Plaintiff cousin, sister, and the general public, through public posts on social media in the State of New York.

111. On November 29, 2018, the defendant contacted Cisero Jr.'s sister, Anna Garcia, with regard to a social media post she had made in which Cisero Jr. sought charitable donations for children over the holidays.

112. The defendant, stated to Anna that "nothing [Cisero Jr.] is doing right now is legal" and "he [sic] around making it look like my book was his and whatever else he [is] saying to play the victim role when the fact is he is what he has always been, a dam [sic] liar!"

113. On or around August 23, 2017, the defendant contacted Cisero Jr.'s cousin, Maris Nimmons, on Facebook Messenger.

114. The defendant, stated to Nimmons that “I’m not sure what you’ve been lead [sic] to believe but this is my book...” and stating “[t]hat’s how it is when you [are] operating secretly & felonious [sic].”

115. On September 7, 2017, the defendant sent an email to Cisero Jr.’s friend, Clifton Bell, who had assisted with interview research for the Copyrighted Works.

116. The defendant stated to Bell that “[Cisero Jr.] is no longer affiliated with [MES] . . . based upon numerous fictitious, felonious, and fraudulent transgressions over the course of months by [Cisero Jr.] which dramatically violated the image and integrity of MES.” The defendant claimed in that email that he attached proof that Cisero Jr. had relinquished all claims to MES and projects relating to Cisero Sr.

117. The defendant has, and continues to, use social media and other platforms to disparage Cisero Jr.’s character and falsely claim to Cisero Jr.’s friends and family members that defendant is the sole author of the Copyrighted Works.

118. Defendant statements injure Plaintiff by alleging criminal acts by Plaintiff.

119. Defendant statements, which are defamation pro-se, tend to injure Plaintiff’s trade, business or profession as an author and businessman by claiming that his actions are fraudulent, illegal, and that he did not author the copyrighted works.

120. Defendant made these statements with the knowledge that they were false.

121. Defendant made these statements without any privilege or authorization.

COUNT 1
Declaratory Judgment of Copyright Ownership

121. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 120 above as if fully set forth herein.

122. Copyrighted Works are actual, immediate, and substantial, and a justiciable controversy exists over the opposing parties' rights and obligations with respect to the Copyrighted Works.

123. There is a current, definite, and concrete controversy between Plaintiff and Defendant having adverse legal interests, and the controversy is sufficiently immediate and real to warrant the issue of a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201. The controversy is amenable to specific relief through a conclusive decree.

124. Defendant's claims of copyright ownership in any portion of the Copyrighted Works are without legal foundation. Plaintiff is the sole owner of the copyrights in the Copyrighted Works.

125. Plaintiff never signed the Forged Agreement, nor did he appear in front of a notary in connection with the Forged Agreement. As such, the Forged Agreement is a forgery without any binding force.

126. The Forged Agreement is further invalid because no consideration was paid to Plaintiff.

127. The Forged Agreement is legally insignificant regardless of its authenticity, as the Agreement does not convey rights in the Copyrighted Work to Defendant or MES.

128. A declaratory judgment in this case will serve a useful purpose in clarifying and settling the respective rights and obligations of the parties. It will afford relief from the uncertainty, insecurity, and emotional stress that is resulting from this controversy upon the persons who have invested substantial money, time, and effort into this project.

129. Plaintiff requests the Court to enter a Judgment and Order that (i) Plaintiff is the sole author of the Copyrighted Works; (ii) Plaintiff is the sole copyright owner of the Copyrighted Works; (iii) Defendant's reproduction and distribution of the Copyrighted Works constitutes a violation of Plaintiff's rights; and (iv) the Forged Agreement is legally null, void, and without any binding force.

130. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(d), if the Court should find the Forged Agreement legally binding, Plaintiff requests that the Court enter a Judgment and Order that the Forged Agreement does not cover the Copyrighted Works and does not affect Plaintiff's sole authorship or copyright ownership related to the Copyrighted Works.

COUNT 2
Copyright Infringement

131. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 131 above as if fully set forth herein.

132. The Copyrighted Works are original literary works containing copyrightable subject matter for which copyright protection exists under the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, et. seq.

133. Plaintiff is the exclusive owner of all right, title, and interest under copyright in and to the Copyrighted Works. Ownership of the copyrights in the Copyrighted Works vested in Plaintiff by virtue of his sole authorship of the Copyrighted Works. Additionally, Plaintiff owns a valid copyright registration for each of the Copyrighted Works, attached as Exhibits A and B.

134. Through his secretarial work on the manuscript that became the Copyrighted Works, as well as by taking a copy of the printed manuscript from Plaintiff's car without Plaintiff's knowledge or consent, Defendant had access to the Copyrighted Works.

135. Through Defendant's conduct alleged herein, including Defendant's reproduction, distribution, public display, and sale of the Infringing Work, which is copied from and substantially similar to Plaintiff's Copyrighted Works, without Plaintiff's permission, Defendant has directly infringed Plaintiff's exclusive rights in the Copyrighted Works in violation of Section 501 of the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 501.

136. Defendant's infringing conduct alleged herein was, and continues to be, willful and with full knowledge of Plaintiff's rights in the Copyrighted Works, and has enabled Defendant illegally to obtain profit and business opportunities therefrom. The willfulness of Defendant's infringement is established by, among other things, his having taken Plaintiff's printed manuscript from Plaintiff's car and subsequently publishing a nearly identical work under Defendant's name. See ¶¶ 41, 48–49.

137. As a result of the foregoing, Defendant is liable to plaintiff for copyright infringement, contributory infringement, and/or induced infringement.

138. Plaintiff is entitled to statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), up to the amount of $150,000 for each of Plaintiff's Copyrighted Works that Defendant willfully infringed, and for such other amount as may be proper pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c).

139. In the alternative, Plaintiff seeks recovery of Plaintiff's actual damages plus Defendant's profits attributable to Defendant's infringing conduct alleged herein, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), if that amount is found to exceed statutory damages under 17 U.S.C. § 504(c). This includes, but is not limited to, Defendant's profits attributable to any and all sales of the Infringing Work, and any profits attributable to derivative works created from Plaintiff's Copyright Works. Plaintiff requests an accounting and a constructive trust with respect to such profits.

140. Plaintiff is further entitled to attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

141. Defendant's conduct has caused and will continue to cause irreparable injury to Plaintiff unless enjoined by this Court. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502.

COUNT 3
Unjust Enrichment

142. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 142 above as if fully set forth herein.

143. Defendant has been enriched by representing himself as the author of the Copyrighted Works. Defendant has been enriched by, among other things, using the representation of authorship to promote his business dealings, and to make contacts within the billiards world.

144. Defendant was also enriched by Plaintiff when Plaintiff gave Defendant the money towards the formation and other start-up costs for MES.

145. Defendant's enrichment comes at Plaintiff's expense. Plaintiff is the true author of the Copyrighted Works, and all the benefits Defendant has derived by representing himself as their author are the result of Plaintiff's work. And the money Plaintiff paid Defendant for the formation and start-up of MES also came from Plaintiff.

146. Defendant has not provided Plaintiff with compensation to be known as the author of the Copyrighted Works or for the benefits this has allowed him to realize. Defendant did not provide Plaintiff with anything in return for the money used to form MES, in spite of Defendant's representations that he and Plaintiff would be co-equal owners of the business.

147. Therefore, Defendant should be made to make restitution to Plaintiff in an amount to be proven at trial. This amount should include at least $1,223, the amount Plaintiff paid Defendant to further MES' formation.

COUNT 4
Fraud

148. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 148 above as if fully set forth herein.

149. In or around June 2016, Defendant falsely and fraudulently represented to Plaintiff that MES would be a joint enterprise and that the two would be co-owners.

150. The representations made by Defendant were in fact false. On information and belief, Defendant never intended for Plaintiff to be included in the business.

151. When Defendant made these representations, he knew them to be false, and these representations were made by Defendant with the intent to defraud and deceive Plaintiff in order to induce Plaintiff to give Defendant money for the company and to provide access to Plaintiff's completed manuscript. On information and belief, at the time Defendant made the promises to Plaintiff, Defendant had no intention of performing them.

152. Plaintiff, at the time this promise was made and at the time Plaintiff took the actions herein alleged, was unaware of Defendant's secret intention not to perform and Plaintiff could not, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, have discovered Defendant's secret intention. In reliance on these representations, Plaintiff was induced to and did complete the book about Plaintiff's father, provide access to that book to Defendant, and pay $1,223 to Defendant. If Plaintiff had known of the actual intention of Defendant, Plaintiff would not have taken such action. Plaintiff's reliance on Defendant's representations was justified because of their relationship as father and son.

153. As a proximate result of Defendant's fraud and deceit and the facts herein alleged, Plaintiff was deprived of $1,223, all of which Plaintiff gave to Defendant to start a business that Defendant had no intention in allowing Plaintiff to be a part of.

154. In doing the acts herein alleged, Defendant acted with oppression, fraud, and malice, and Plaintiff is entitled to punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

COUNT 5
Negligent Misrepresentation

155. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 155 above as if fully set forth herein.

156. Defendant, due to his relationship with Plaintiff, had a duty to give correct information. This arises from, among other things, Defendant's editing work on Plaintiff's manuscript, which Plaintiff only allowed while the two men were in the same room, as well as from Defendant's representations to Plaintiff that he intended for the two men to be equal partners in business.

157. As described above, Defendant made material misrepresentations to Plaintiff that the two men would form a business together jointly. Indeed, Defendant even addressed Plaintiff as the "Co-Owner of Murphy Enterprise Solutions," and Defendant and Plaintiff agreed that they would both be co-owners of MES.

158. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff took these representations seriously. Among other things, Plaintiff did not insist on adding his name to the MES formation documents because Defendant represented to him that his name would be added later, and that doing so would not affect Plaintiff's status as a co-owner of MES.

159. Defendant's material misrepresentations and/or omissions were calculated to induce Plaintiff to pay Defendant money towards starting MES of at least $1,223, as well as to induce Plaintiff not to conduct further inquiries into the requirements for forming a business.

160. Plaintiff reasonably relied on Defendant's misrepresentations and/or omissions to his detriment, as he believed that Defendant was speaking truthfully when he said that the two men would be co-owners of MES.

161. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's negligent misrepresentation, Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount to be proven at trial.

COUNT 6
Conversion

162. Plaintiff repeats the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through XX above as if fully set forth herein.

163. Upon information and belief, on January 17, 2017, Defendant unlawfully and intentionally assumed and exercised Plaintiff's right of ownership and control over a copy of Plaintiff's manuscript for the Printed Copyrighted Work.

164. Defendant's unlawful and intentional assumption and exercise of Plaintiff's right of ownership and control over the copy of the manuscript was to the exclusion of Plaintiff.

165. Defendant knowingly denied and violated Plaintiff's rightful dominion, rights, and possession over Plaintiff's property.

166. As a result of the Defendant's acts of conversion, Defendant was able to publish, sell, and market the Infringing Work under his own name, in violation of Plaintiff's authorial rights, thereby severely reducing the value of Plaintiff's manuscript.

167. Defendant's acts of conversion have caused irreparable harm to Plaintiff for which there is no adequate remedy at law, and will continue to cause irreparable harm to Plaintiff unless the Defendant is permanently enjoined by this Court.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests judgment be entered in its favor and against Defendant as follows:

- 1) That Plaintiff is the sole owner and author of the Copyrighted Works;
- 2) That the Forged Agreement is legally null and void, or in the alternative, does not cover the Copyrighted Works;
- 3) That Plaintiff be awarded attorneys' fees, costs, and disbursements incurred as a result of this action;

- 4) That Plaintiff be awarded damages for all injuries suffered as a result of Defendant's unlawful conduct;
- 5) That Plaintiff be awarded punitive damages in an amount to be proved at trial;
- 6) An injunction permanently enjoining the Defendant, his employees, agents, officers, directors, attorneys, successors, affiliates, subsidiaries, and assigns, and all of those in active concert and participation with any of the foregoing persons and entities who receive actual notice of the Court's order by personal service or otherwise, from:
  - a) reproducing, distributing, marketing, advertising, promoting, displaying, or selling or authorizing any third party to reproduce, distribute, market, advertise, promote, display, or sell the Infringing Work and any products, works, or other materials that include, copy, are derived from, or otherwise embody the Copyrighted Works;
  - b) reproducing, distributing, or publicly displaying the Copyrighted Works, creating any derivative works based on the Copyrighted Works, or engaging in any activity that infringes Plaintiff's rights in its Copyrighted Works;
  - c) aiding, assisting, or abetting any other individual or entity in doing any act prohibited by sub-paragraphs (a) or (b).
- 7) That Defendant be ordered to provide an accounting of MES's profits and of Defendant's profits attributable to Defendant's infringing conduct, including Defendant's profits from sales of the Infringing Work and any products, works, or other materials that include, copy, are derived from, or otherwise embody the Copyrighted Works.

- 8) That Defendant be ordered to destroy or deliver up for destruction all materials in Defendant's possession, custody, or control used by Defendant in connection with Defendant's infringing conduct, including without limitation all remaining copies of the Infringing Work and any products and works that embody any reproduction or other copy or colorable imitation of the Copyrighted Works, as well as all means for manufacturing them.
- 9) That Defendant, at its own expense, be ordered to recall the Infringing Work from any distributors, retailers, vendors, or others that have distributed the Infringing Work, and any products, works or other materials that include, copy, are derived from, or otherwise embody the Infringing Work or the Copyrighted Works, and that Defendant be ordered to destroy or deliver up for destruction all materials returned to it.
- 10) Awarding Plaintiff interest, including pre-judgment and post-judgment interest, on the foregoing sums.
- 11) Awarding such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Dear Mr. Murphy:

As you may recall, I am the attorney for Cisero Murphy, Jr., the author of the above referenced work. It has come to our attention that you plan on selling this work on your website www.murphyentsolutions.com, commencing on July 1, 2017. Please be advised that Big City Knights is the proprietary work of Cisero Murphy, Jr. and you are not authorized to reproduce or profit from same without his consent. It is hereby demand that you cease and desist from the reproduction and sale of said work immediately. This is a good faith effort to avoid prolonged and costly litigation. Failure to abide by this demand will result in an immediate request for judicial intervention.

Thank you.

RE: MES Stance and Final Status Regarding Cisero K. Murphy Jr

Dear Attorney Dudelson:

I am sending you this correspondence as a courtesy based upon our previous mutual & good standing interactions, and to officially reply to your certified letter sent via USPS.

Enclosed within this envelope, and as attached to the email sent to you on June 23rd, 2017, are two (2) documents in which your client Cisero K. Murphy Jr (Murphy) is fully aware of, however, in which, I am sure that you are not knowledgeable until now. Let's be extremely clear, Murphy is not the typical client and if you give him enough time he will prove to be a liability. It was made exceedingly clear to Murphy, his actions are not suitable under the Murphy Enterprise Solutions (MES) ideology of operational flow.

MES has established a brand in which image and integrity are essential. Murphy adheres to your verbal direction, so naturally, I will present MES stance to you in order to ensure Murphy comprehends. Murphy is restricted from conducting any business under MES image, which means, his restricted access is terminated.

Next, Murphy as no valid claim and/or authority of, or, to the true work and/or title of the book regarding Cisero S. Murphy. The actual title of my work is Big City Nights: The Autobiography of the Legendary Cisero Murphy. My work is currently on file with the U.S. Copyright Office, Case # 1-4356919061. Moreover, I have supporting documentation to show history of my journey putting this project together and with Murphy's awareness as a spectator. However, I am not sure what fallacy Murphy has depicted to you, but, I encourage him not to copyright infringe any of my material. To confirm, yes, pre-orders of my book will commence on July 1st, 2017, as scheduled on MES website.

Additionally, Murphy elaborated verbally the litigation against Lillian Murphy was over during the April court appearance. Perhaps I should forward this information, especially the forfeiture contract, over to Lillian's side???

Furthermore, yet most essential, I will allow Murphy to conclude his case without any interjection. However, any, and I mean any, further attempt to hinder, violate and/or disregard what has been established, especially, in written form, including this document, will result in MES pursuing RJI at full expense to Mr. Murphy. I definitely concur with you to avoid unnecessary litigation, thus, the reason I am writing this response instead of my attorney. I implore you to inform your client, for future reference, to respect business deals made and do not attempt to swindle MES, myself, and/or other parties after they show progress with something that was once considered undo-able or useless from his prospective.

Best of luck to him and his future endeavors!!

Genuinely,

Tyreek A. Murphy

Re: Copyright Infringement of "Big City Nights"
Ten Days for Response

Dear Mr. Murphy,

I represent Mr. Cisero Murphy with respect to his above-referenced intellectual property concerns. Accordingly, all future communications regarding this matter should be directed to my office.

Please have your lawyers contact me, immediately. Until your lawyers contact me, I will assume that you have none.

Pursuant to your dispute with my client over ownership of "Big City Nights," you claimed in a letter to Mr. Dudelson dated June 26, 2017, to have "supporting documentation to show history of my journey putting this project together and with Murphy's awareness as a spectator." Please send that documentation, as well as a copy of the manuscript you are selling. Preferably, you can send those items by overnight courier so that we may resolve, rather than escalate, this dispute. This might be a simple matter: if your manuscript is different from my client's or if you provide irrefutable documentation of your sole authorship of the work in question, then my client and I regroup and discuss whether any claims remain of wrongdoing on your part.

In my possession, I have a handwritten manuscript of a book about Cisero Murphy, Sr. entitled "Big City Nights." This manuscript has editing marks in different handwriting; I also have text messages between you and my client detailing your role in the book as a proofreader or editor. You should know that the law is well settled: proofreading, editing, or even making suggestions do not qualify you as a co-author, much less the sole author, of a creative work.

My investigation reveals that you have submitted a copyright application to the Copyright Office with case number 1-4356919061. Please keep in mind that submitting a completed application does not automatically bestow rights in that work. In fact, even if your application passes muster with the Copyright Office, considering this government agency experiences Skidmore rather than

LAW OFFICE OF DAVID H. FAUX, P.C.

Chevron deference with the Second Circuit; should it come to light that you fraudulently submitted another man's work under your name, then you may be adding a federal criminal charge to the list of potential civil claims I give below.

In the meantime, I must demand that you immediately cease and desist any and all use of the manuscript, including sales on your website at URL (<http://www.murphnettifashions.mybigcommerce.com/big-city-nights-the-biography-of-the-legendary-cisero-murphy-pre-order-special/>). Distribution of a book—if substantially similar to my client's—will render you vulnerable to liability for statutory damages up to $150,000 per infringement plus attorney's fees. You may also be vulnerable to claims of conversion, unjust enrichment, false designation of origin, common law unfair competition, and, pursuant to New York General Business Law §§ 349-50, unfair competition, deceptive acts and practices, false advertising, and consumer fraud.

In your June 26 letter, you state, "However, any, and I mean any, further attempt to hinder, violate and/or disregard what has been established, especially, in written form, including this document, will result in MES pursuing RJI at full expense to Mr. Murphy." While this sentence is borderline incoherent, it also expresses a profound ignorance of the law and the way courts work. It is very important that you discuss your situation with attorneys to avoid filing a frivolous lawsuit that results in both you and your father paying a bunch of money to lawyers. Of course, I am not in a position to advise you and I feel at ease in the courtroom and the boardroom, alike.

Please contact us or have your attorneys contact us within the next ten (10) business days. Provided that you are cooperative, we are prepared to believe that your adoption of any infringing material was unintentional. However, you have now been apprised of my client's rights and his intention to enforce them to the fullest extent of the law. Consequently, any continued use of an infringing manuscript will be deemed willful infringement at which point my client and I will be obliged to explore further options, including litigation, on what we believe to be a firm factual and legal footing. I look forward to hearing from you before then.

Nothing contained herein shall constitute an admission of any kind whatsoever, nor shall it constitute a waiver of any rights or remedies at law, in equity, or otherwise all of which are hereby expressly reserved.

Very truly yours,

LAW OFFICE OF DAVID H. FAUX, P.C.

RE: Cease and Desist, MES Stance, and Final Status Regarding Cisero K. Murphy Jr

Dear Attorney Faux,

I have received your request via email on July 5th, 2017. I immediately responded via email on July 6th, 2017 and sent this response certified mail on July 7th, 2017 in regards to my work entitled Big City Nights: The Biography of the Legendary Cisero Murphy. I can ascertain Attorney Alexander M. Dudelson forwarded/referred this matter over to you for your expertise. As I told Dudelson based upon our mutual interaction, and as I will relate to you, I will afford you this one-time courtesy.

I provided sufficient documentation in the certified letter I sent to Dudelson, which should have been forwarded to you, in regards to Cisero K. Murphy Jr (CM). The documentation sent to me by Dudelson of CM's claimed work was an edited title version of my work (see attachment). In good faith, I provided the U.S. Copyright case number to support my work being protected. I am fully aware of the handwritten documents CM has in his possession as he took dictation from me during the period my computer was not functional. At the end of each dictation, I reviewed and revised, or edited, my work. When I uncovered (In February 2017) what CM was attempting to do (steal my work) I gave him plenty of time to cease his devious action(s). I, as well, have text messages in which your client acknowledged me formulating the title of this book and claims to not have printed out my work. Naturally, if you have text messages from CM, please tell him to show you all the messages and not just the ones to strengthen his felonious claim. It is this major facet which led to the termination of his restricted access within Murphy Enterprise Solutions (MES). To reiterate, MES and myself stance regarding CM restricted access is final.

Additionally, I will not continue to furnish documentation CM is already aware of and/or have no right to, so that the both of you can attempt to utilize it to argue a pointless stance by CM. What has been attached is the only overwhelming courteous proof I am going to freely submit in this matter. Provide me with proof to support his claim of being the author of Big City Nights... You claim to have investigated my U.S. Copyright case number, then you should know exactly when it was filed, so naturally, any proof submitted to me on CM behalf should be before that time-frame to help attempt the support of his claim.

Moreover, despite my not conducting business in the field of law, there is no ignorance on my behalf regarding written documentation. As attached, is the Forfeiture Contract (FC) signed, printed, and dated by CM, while in the presence of a legal notary official. This document clearly states CM releases all rights and/or claims regarding Cisero Sr. including intellectual property. Essentially to note in the FC, CM would be legally responsible for any expenses incurred including legal fees as a result of his violating the contract. There is nothing incoherent and/or confusing about the FC and/or what was expressed in the communication sent to Dudelson, restating points of the FC, and again in this documentation to you, even the novice non-legal mind can depict and concur.

Furthermore, I deeply appreciate the brief "crash course" refresher on current legal statutes. However, it is irrelevant to me and should be elaborated to your client with great detail, considering your client is a convicted felon on active lifetime parole, because your client has no valid claim and/or legal standing, again refer to the FC and attached documents. I implore you, as I did Dudelson, to relate to your client any, and I say again, any further attempt to hinder, disregard, and/or violate what has been established/submitted officially and/or officially in written form will result in MES and/or myself pursuing Judicial intervention or RJI as legal minds refer to it. You are the second, and the last, attorney in which I am going to elaborate this matter to regarding MES and/or myself position.

Finally, I will not bother giving a deadline for CM submission of proof, regarding Big City Nights..., to me because it is clear based upon this request for me to release information and this matter even being referred to you, he has no case and/or legitimate information to provide. I will send this documentation via certified mail, but any communication thereafter will be by email, as I am not going to continue paying for postage to officially response to ridiculous attempts by CM to negate established official stances.

Best of luck to him and his future endeavors!!

Genuinely,

Tyriek A. Murphy

Re: Complaint Concerning Big City Nights: A Biography of the Legendary Cisero Murphy

Dear Mr. Murphy:

I write on behalf of Cisero Murphy, Jr. ("Cisero Murphy"), sole author of Big City Nights: A Biography of the Legendary Cisero Murphy ("Big City Nights") and sole owner of its copyrights. See Copyright Reg. Nos. TXu002053010 and TXu002060114, attached hereto. As I am sure you are aware, Cisero Murphy registered these copyrights in Big City Nights with the U.S. Copyright Office on June 15, 2017 and July 3, 2017, respectively, and his copyrights in the title remain valid and enforceable.

It has come to our attention that you are attempting to profit off of Cisero Murphy's work by selling Big City Nights on, among other places, your websites, Booktopia, Barnes and Noble, eBay and Amazon at the following links:

- <https://murphyentsolutions.com/>
- <http://www.murphnettifashions.mybigcommerce.com/big-city-nights-the-biography-of-the-legendary-cisero-murphy/>
- <https://www.booktopia.com.au/big-city-nights-mpa-tyriek-a-murphy/prod9781480947849.html>
- <https://www.barnesandnoble.com/w/big-city-nights-tyriek-a-murphy-mpa/1127202677?type=eBook>
- <https://www.ebay.com/p/Big-City-Nights-The-Biography-of-the-Legendary-Cisero-Murphy-by-Tyriek-A-Murphy-2017-Paperback/239661549>
- <https://www.amazon.com/Big-City-Nights-Biography-Legendary/dp/1480947849>

The posting of Big City Nights for sale in such places is not authorized by Cisero Murphy, his agents, or the law. Accordingly, this conduct constitutes a violation of United States Copyright law. See 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq. In particular, the Copyright Act provides that Cisero Murphy has the "exclusive" right to authorize all reproductions of Big City Nights, to distribute copies of Big City Nights, and to publicly display Big City Nights. Id. § 106. This conduct violates all three of these exclusive rights, rendering you liable for copyright infringement under Section 501 of the Copyright Act, and subjecting you to injunctive relief, as well as potential liability for actual damages, disgorgement of profits, or statutory damages to be assessed by a court of competent jurisdiction. 17 U.S.C. §§ 502, 504. As demonstrated by evidence of your direct knowledge that Cisero Murphy Jr. was writing Big City Nights, there is no question that your unlawful infringement was willful, subjecting you to additional civil and criminal penalties. Cisero Murphy has undertaken significant investments in his intellectual property and takes your blatant violations of his copyright in Big City Nights extremely seriously.

Accordingly, on behalf of Cisero Murphy, we demand that you:

1. Immediately take down Big City Nights from your website and cease all reproduction, sale, distribution and display of the work, pursuant to the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, 15 U.S.C. § 512;
2. Provide an accounting of how many copies of Big City Nights were purchased via each venue and the price of each copy sold; and
3. Compensate Cisero Murphy for the injuries he has already suffered and any profits you have unlawfully obtained from your unauthorized use of his work.

At a minimum, we believe that it would be appropriate for you to pay $750, representing the statutory minimum for damages caused by willful infringement (17 U.S.C. § 504), multiplied by the number of copies of Big City Nights that you have sold.

If you are prepared to cooperate, please sign the below acknowledgment and return a copy of this letter, along with an accounting of the copies sold, to me within ten days. Should you fail to honor these demands, we are prepared to take appropriate steps to protect and enforce Cisero Murphy's rights, including, but not limited to, seeking the maximum amount of damages allowable under the Copyright Act, injunctive relief, costs, attorneys' fees, and other remedies available at law.

The information in this notification is accurate, and, under penalty of perjury, I am authorized to act on behalf of Cisero Murphy, the owner of the copyright that is being infringed. This letter is not intended to be a complete recitation of all relevant facts and is sent without prejudice to any of Cisero Murphy's rights, all of which are expressly reserved.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT:

I agree immediately to cease and desist from any further reproduction, distribution or display of Big City Nights: A Biography of the Legendary Cisero Murphy (Copyright Reg. Nos. TXu002053010 and TXu002060114). I agree to take all steps necessary to remedy my unauthorized reproduction, distribution, and display of this work, including but not limited to:

- (1) removing this work from the website associated with Murphy Enterprise Solutions LLC;
- (2) providing an accounting of all sales of this work; and
- (3) providing appropriate compensation to its owner, Cisero Murphy.

Agreed to and accepted by:

RE: MES Stance and Final Status Regarding Cisero K. Murphy Jr

Dear Attorney Daniel Angel,

I am Tyriek A. Murphy, sole Owner and Chief Executive Officer of Murphy Enterprise Solutions, LLC (MES). I have already sent this correspondence via email on July 13th, 2018. This letter is an official response to your July 3rd letter, in which was received on July 9th by FedEx, and, most essentially, as a one-time courtesy to you to ensure you have the entire facts and not the felonious accounts of your client Cisero K. Murphy, Jr. (CM). I will not have any form of harsh feelings towards you, because your simply earning quite possibly the easiest fee ever by taken CM retainer fee. CM, as I have told the other two attorneys (Attorney Dudelson & Attorney Faux, both CC'd via email) before you, is a "special" client.

First, I will forward all of the emails to you that have been established between CM's attorneys and myself regarding a merit-less attempt by your client to gain from my actual work. AT NO POINT, has there ever been an agreement between CM and I in which states we would be partners of MES or of any sort. All the documentation (including phone text messages) you should have, or will have based upon me sending it to you, clearly enforces that stance and/or CM awareness as to my work. This document in which you have label as "Exhibit C" is a falsified document fabricated by either CM and/or his designee. For obvious reasons, simply observe the grammar, punctuation, and/or context in this email vs. the document alleged to be written by me. Additionally, none of my actual letterheads ever have the logo image that large. Next, the signature (my alleged signature), which was copied and pasted onto Exhibit C came from the official response I gave Attorney Dudelson dated June 26th, 2017, regarding CM's first attempt to challenge me regarding my work. Lastly, yet extremely imperative, if CM had this document, dated October 11th, 2016, that proves my alleged awareness then why wasn't Attorneys Dudelson and/or Faux made aware and this copy provided to me, as all the other evidence CM claimed, in their initial notifications to myself??

Second, the attached documents verify all that was or all that is between CM and MES & myself. Furthermore, should RJI be warranted, I would have my legal advisors subpoena Attorneys Dudelson and Faux to exclusively answer whether they ever seen or were given any document as, or closely related, to Exhibit C?? Keeping in mind of all Discovery statues and The Crime-Fraud Exception of Attorney Client Privilege, I do not believe Attorneys Dudelson or Faux would engaged in unethical conduct, losing their honor to practice law, for a convicted felon. TO BE CLEAR, MES and I stance regarding CM is final. The demand requested by yourself on behalf of CM is not only invalid but will be completely ignored. It was made very clear to CM, because it was expressed to his two attorneys before you, any further attempts to hinder, disregard, and/or violate what has been established officially and/or established officially in written form would result in litigation that CM would be financially responsible.

Finally, since it seems CM has excess amounts of capital, based upon his ability to retain three different attorneys, from different law firms, it is my demand that CM render a annoyance fee of $6,500.00 US Dollars by Bank Certified Check or US Postal Money Order and made payable to Murphy Enterprise Solutions with a notarized apology letter for the inconvenience caused to MES and myself and to refrain from any further attempts to pursue ridiculous litigation and/or the slander of MES and/or myself, within seven (7) business days from Tuesday July 17th, 2018.

ESSENTIAL TO NOTE: Should CM fail to adhere to my demand, it will be my full intent to have my legal team file Civil charges for Harassment, Slander, and Copyright Infringement, with credit from Exhibits A & B, and a notarized letter upon request from Andre Smith in which CM spoke to him on or around September 1st, 2017 in which he slandered my character. As well as Criminal charges pursuant under Article(s) 165, 170, and/or 190 of the NY Penal Law, with credit to Exhibit C, and any other applicable Penal Code. I implore you, Attorney Angel, as I did Attorneys Dudelson & Faux, inform your client he has no merit and it is STRONGLY in his best interest to meet my demand by July 26th, 2018 (which is seven (7) business days from July 17th, 2018). As it would be a disservice to himself being in jeopardy of incarceration after being discharge from NYS Parole in September of 2017.

Genuinely,
